THE CREW

MISSISSAUGA POPS CONCERT BAND has been delighting audiences in Southern Ontario for over three decades. This award-winning musical group has a membership of 50+ performers—amateurs to semi-professionals—whose passion is providing quality concert band music to their listening audience. These concerts have given audiences and band members the chance to share in musical moments with such greats as Peter Appleyard, Johnny Cowell, Bobby Herriot, trombonist Alastair Kay, Dinah Christie, television's Luba Goy, and Canadian composer Howard Cable. The Pops' concert schedule also includes local summer appearances as well as the ever-popular Community Christmas Sing at Eden United Church. The Pops' solid reputation has extended outside its home community with performances across the province and in the USA. Visit the 'Pops' online on their Facebook and Twitter pages and at www.MississaugaPops.com.

CAPTAIN RITA ARENDZ

In the course of her musical career, Rita has been a free-lance horn player, a private teacher, clinician as well as a conductor. Having earned a Masters in Music (Conducting) from the University of Toronto with Dr. Gillian Mackay, she continued to study conducting through workshops and seminars with Mark Scatterday, Dale Lonis, Craig Kirchoff, Tim Reynish, Richard Blatti, Paula Holcombe, and others.

Rita's engagements have included the Oshawa Civic Band, Intrada Brass of Oakville, The Metropolitan Silver Band, The Queen's Own Rifles of Canada, the Richmond Hill Philharmonic Orchestra, the Oakland Brass Band, the Silverthorn Silver Band, the Pickering Philharmonic, and other concert band and ensembles within the Greater Toronto Area. In the fall of 2011, Rita founded "A Little Wind Music", a chamber-sized ensemble devoted to the music of the light classical genre mixed in with the contemporary styles while engaging the audience through its presentations and interactions. As a clinician, Rita has worked with both high school bands and cadet bands. Her private teachings focus on conducting and French horn.

As well, Rita is a member of the Canadian Forces Primary Reserve where she conducted over 20 years and taught Basic Conducting to Reserve Musicians. She currently holds the rank of Captain, and is working at the 32nd Canadian Brigade Group Headquarters.
