THE CREW

MISSISSAUGA POPS CONCERT BAND has been delighting audiences in Southern Ontario for over three decades. This award-winning musical group has a membership of 50+ performers—amateurs to semi-professionals—whose passion is providing quality concert band music to their listening audience. These concerts have given audiences and band members the chance to share in musical moments with such greats as Peter Appleyard, Johnny Cowell, Bobby Herriot, trombonist Alastair Kay, Dinah Christie, television's Luba Goy, and Canadian composer Howard Cable. The Pops' concert schedule also includes local summer appearances as well as the ever-popular Community Christmas Sing at Eden United Church. The Pops' solid reputation has extended outside its home community with performances across the province and in the USA. Visit the 'Pops' online on their Facebook and Twitter pages and at www.MississaugaPops.com.

THE DIRECTOR

JOSEPH RESENDES, BFA, MA, PhD (in progress) was born in Toronto, Ontario and has extensive professional credits as an active conductor, composer, performer, educator, adjudicator, and clinician. His diversity through conducting, composing, and performance has allowed Joseph the privilege of working with many music professionals and recording opportunities with artists such as "The Tenors", working with multi Grammy award winning producer Steve Thompson, international tours with the 'Musica em Viagem' (Azores Musical Journey) ensemble, and conducting highly acclaimed ensembles such as the University of North Texas Wind Symphony.

Joseph currently holds several degrees from York University (BFA – Classical Saxophone and woodwind performance, conducting) (MA – Composition), and is completing his PhD in the field of Musicology/Ethnomusicology focusing on Wind Studies, conducting, and the development of community music in Canada. As a conductor, Joseph has studied with Eugene Migliaro Corporon, Dennis Fisher, Colleen Richardson, and attended many symposia featuring clinicians Mark Scatterday, Gillian MacKay, Richard Blatti, Paula Holcomb, Craig Kirchhoff, Tim Reynish, and Jack Stamp.

He has composed and arranged music for many ensembles earning several premiere performances across Canada, the USA, and Europe. With regular invitations acting as a clinician, guest conductor, and adjudicator, Joseph has been frequently called upon to adjudicate at Kiwanis, Golden Horseshoe, and other large music festivals across Canada. Currently, he works as a sessional instructor at McMaster University and is the music director of Northdale Concert Band and East York Concert Band.
